FOUR MEN INDICTED FOR USING INTERNET TO INDUCE A MINOR TO ENGAGE IN CRIMINAL SEXUAL ACTIVITY

FRESNO—United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today four indictments were returned by a federal grand jury sitting in Fresno, California. The indictments, while unrelated, charge four men with using a facility of interstate commerce, specifically the Internet, in order to induce a minor to engage in criminal sexual activity.

The indictments were returned against Richard Milton Hawkins, 58, of Mission Viejo, California, William Glenn Satterlee, 57, of Valley Springs, California, Jack Davis Carter, 46, of Houston, Texas, and Raymond Carter (no relation to defendant Jack Carter), 60, of Oakland, California.

Each defendant faces a minimum of five years and a maximum of thirty years in custody, and up to a $250,000 fine if convicted.

Defendants Raymond Carter and Jack Carter are being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney David L. Gappa, while defendants Hawkins and Satterlee are being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Jonathan B. Conklin.

The charges are only allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
